INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Trustees of N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust

We have audited the balance sheet of N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust as at December 31, 2016 and the statements of operating revenue and expenditures and operating fund balances and cash flows for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many charitable organizations, N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust derives part of its income from donations, the completeness of which is not susceptible to complete audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of revenue from this source was limited to a comparison of recorded receipts with bank deposits.

Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effect of adjustments, if any, had donations been susceptible to complete audit verification, as described in the preceding paragraph, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust as at December 31, 2016 and the results of its operating operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

The N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust (the "Trust") was created by a Deed of Trust on December 2, 1986. The Trust is a registered charitable organization under The Income Tax Act (Registration No. 130070626 RR0001, effective January 1, 1987).

The primary purpose of the charity is as follows:

- (a) To carry on charitable activities, through appointed agents in Israel, directly by assisting in the creation and operation of facilities providing medical, dental and counselling services to new immigrants, the disabled, victims of violence and other persons who for financial or other reasons would not otherwise be able to obtain such services;
- (b) To carry on charitable activities, through appointed agents in Israel, directly by developing and supporting programs, as well as providing written and other materials which inform people of the health, education, counselling and welfare services available to them in their communities and their right to make use of such services;
- (c) To purchase and provide materials and equipment for use by educational, health, welfare and counselling agencies and institutions in Canada and Israel; and
- (d) To provide funds to "qualified donees" as defined by The Income Tax Act (Canada) as amended from time to time, for use in their activities.

2. Significant accounting policies

The financial statements of the Trust have been prepared by management in accordance with Part III of the CPA Canada Handbook, referred to as Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. Significant accounting policies used in the preparation of the financial statements are summarized as follows:

(a) Revenue recognition

The Trust uses the deferral method of revenue recognition for general and donor-advised donations. Unrestricted donations are recorded as revenue upon receipt. Restricted donations are recognized as deferred contributions on receipt and recognized as revenue when the related expenditure is incurred. Pledges are recognized as revenue when the amount of the pledge is reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Interest is recognized as revenue when received or receivable.

(b) Donated goods and services

The Trust records donated capital assets at their estimated fair value at the time of donation. The Trust does not record donated services as the fair value cannot be reasonably estimated.

Dear Board of Directors:

As part of our annual audit of your financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016 we wish to report to you on our findings.

We wish to thank Orit and the organization's staff for assisting us during the audit. Attached is our list of adjustments we have identified during the audit which have not been adjusted for. Based on our materiality of $23,000 there are no material differences nor were there any significant unrecorded items.

We would like to report to you the following financial reporting matters:

Related party transactions

New Israel Fund US and Israel have been identified as having an agency agreement with the organization and the transactions between the two parties have been disclosed accordingly.

We would like to report to you the following internal control matters:

Similar to other small organizations, segregation of duties is difficult but essential for having a high degree of internal control. The following are our observations and recommendations we feel could be implemented to strengthen the internal controls of your organization. This is not intended to assess the performance or proficiencies of the staff, but is intended to assist in the advancement of your organization. Our observations and related recommendations are as follows:

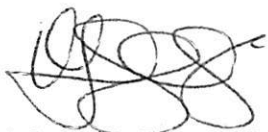

- a) Currently, the Executive Assistant opens the mail, enters the receipts into the system, prepares the deposit slips and deposits the cheques at the bank. There should be some segregation of these duties. We recommend that the mail be opened by the Executive Director so she/he is aware of the cheques received. The Executive Director should also sign off on the deposit slips before the Executive Assistant deposits the cheques.
- b) The Organization has an investment policy statement. It was noted at year end that the fixed income securities were 32% of the portfolio value. The minimum required by the policy is 35%. It should also be noted that the investment policy outlines that a separate and discrete account be maintained for Endowment funds. Current the Endowment funds are commingled in an investment account with the Organization's general funds.

- c) Currently the Organization is issuing donation receipts for stock donations at the liquidation value. The requirement as outlined by Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") is that the donation receipts for stock donations be issued for the value at the time the transfer of ownership occurs. To ensure that the Organization is in compliance with CRA's requirements, the donation receipts should be issued at the time of transfer. The financial statement impact is a classification issue between donation revenue and realized gain/loss.
- d) Similar to the investment statement policy, we recommend that formal policies be created surrounding donor advised donations. While it is understood that many of these donor advised donations are from long time donors, it is important that there be documentation on the stipulations of the donations and how the funds were ultimately spent for accountability purposes.

We would be pleased to discuss these items with you in more detail and assist you with any such implementation that you require.

Yours very truly,

ROSENSWIG McRAE THORPE LLP

Dear Ms. Derrick:

You have requested that we audit the financial statements of N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust, which comprise the balance sheet as at December 31, 2016, and the income statement, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the period then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

We are pleased to confirm our acceptance and our understanding of this audit engagement by means of this letter. Our audit will be conducted with the objective of our expressing an opinion on the financial statements.

Our Responsibilities

We will conduct our audit of N.I.F. Canadian Charitable Trust in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, together with the inherent limitations of internal control, there is an unavoidable risk that some material misstatements may not be detected, even though the audit is properly planned and performed in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards.

In making our risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. However, we will communicate to you in writing concerning any significant deficiencies in internal control relevant to the audit of the financial statements that we have identified during the audit.

Form and Content of Audit Opinion

Unless unanticipated difficulties are encountered, our report will be substantially in the following form:

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders of:

We have audited the balance sheet of as at December 31, 2016 and the statements of income and retained earnings and cash flows for the year then ended.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the year as at December 31, 2016 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

If we conclude that a modification to our opinion on the financial statements is necessary, we will discuss the reasons with you in advance. If, for any reason, we are unable to complete the audit or are unable to form, or have not formed, an opinion on the financial statements, we may withdraw from the audit before issuing an auditor's report or we may disclaim an opinion on the financial statements. If this occurs, we will communicate the reasons and provide you details of any misstatements identified during the audit.

Management's Responsibilities

Our audit will be conducted on the basis that management and, where appropriate, those charged with governance acknowledge and understand that they are responsible for:

- a) The preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the Canadian Accounting Standards for Private Enterprises;

Our records indicate that the above-mentioned registered charity has not yet filed its prescribed Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return, including financial statements, for the fiscal period ending December 31, 2016.

Since different versions of Form T3010 apply, depending on the end of a charity's fiscal period, charities must make sure that they use the correct version.

If the charity has already filed the return, disregard this notice. Otherwise, we remind you that the Income Tax Act requires charities to file their returns within six months from the end of their fiscal period. In order to meet its annual filing requirement, a copy of the charity's own financial statements must be included with Form T3010 to be considered a complete filing.

If the charity does not file its prescribed Form T3010 and financial statements, within the required period, its registration may be revoked for failure to file. A charity that has had its registration revoked for failure to file, and then applies for re-registration, is subject to a $500 failure to file penalty.

If the charity's name or address as shown above is incorrect, print the corrections below and send this notice back to us at:
